This privacy statement explains the type of personal information (including sensitive and health information) we collect and how we handle that information as a part of your relationship with Frank Health Insurance. We understand that the information that you entrust to us is private and confidential. Our staff are trained to respect your privacy in accordance with the applicable privacy laws and our own policies and procedures.

Personal information collection and use

What is personal information?

In this privacy statement 'personal information' means information or an opinion about an identified individual or an individual who is reasonably identifiable, whether the information or opinion is true or not, and whether the information or opinion is recorded in a material form or not.

Personal information includes 'sensitive information' (which includes health information and information or an opinion about an individual's racial origin, political opinion, membership of a political association or trade union, religious beliefs, sexual preferences or criminal record) and 'health information' (which includes information or an opinion about the health or a disability of an individual, the individual's wishes about the provision of health services, or health services provided or to be provided to an individual and includes your claims). In this privacy statement, a reference to personal information includes sensitive and health information.

How do we collect personal information?

Personal information collected by Frank Health Insurance includes, among other information, your name, date of birth, address and contact details and may also include your bank account or credit card details. If you pay your health insurance premium by payroll deduction, we may also collect your employer's details.

Sensitive information collected by Frank Health Insurance includes information about your health or medical history.

We generally collect personal information in person, in writing, by telephone, email, electronic form or via our website. For example, we may collect information when you: obtain a quote from us, make an application for health insurance, submit a health insurance claim, complete forms, have customer interactions with us where we record system notes and voice recordings of telephone conversations or if you use our digital platforms. If you contact us to enquire about our products and services via our website and any other communication channel, we may use your personal information to contact you for the purposes of providing you with further information and to follow up whether you have any interest in acquiring products and services from us. You can let us know at anytime by writing to us, or calling us on the telephone number listed within the 'Direct Marketing and your privacy' section if you no longer wish to be contacted for these purposes. Your consent will remain current until you advise us otherwise.

Where you have provided us with personal information about other individuals (such as other any other persons on your membership, dependants, or persons for whom you are a carer), you must ensure that they are aware or will be aware of your provision of their personal information to us and how their personal information will be handled by us. If the information you are providing to us is health or sensitive information you must first obtain their consent before providing their information to us (unless the individual is incapable of providing such consent).

We may also collect information from third parties such as:

- Our strategic partner, the Australian Health Service Alliance (AHSA) for the purposes of providing health services to you and/or managing the funding of those services, or as required by law. For further details please refer to the 'AHSA Privacy Policy', claims, conduct eligibility checks and to comply with laws such as the Private Health Insurance Act 2007 (Cth) and the National Health Act 1953 (Cth),

- Your previous health fund to cancel your membership and request a transfer certificate,

- The policy holder who is the person responsible for the management of your private health insurance membership or a person authorised to provide us with information on your behalf in order to provide you with private health insurance cover and pay you benefits,

- Organisations engaged by Frank Health Insurance to carry out functions on our behalf such as email and data processing,

- Other health services such as your health service provider, private health insurance provider and Medicare,

- Intermediaries who provide private health insurance information and services on behalf of Frank Health Insurance, and

- Recruitment Agencies when appointing employees and contractors.

We may also collect and use your personal, including sensitive and health information, for marketing purposes. For example, for the direct marketing of products, promotions and services by any and all of our private health insurance businesses and health related businesses.

We may also collect information from our website such as:

- Information about your computer or web device,
- Your IP Address, top level domain name, the date and time of your visit to our site,
- The pages you have accessed or downloaded,
- The address of the last site you visited, and
- Your operating system and the type of browser used.

This information is collected for statistical and administrative purposes, and to improve web based services. It does not readily identify individuals, and we will not attempt to identify individuals from the records our server generates unless it is necessary to do so for law enforcement purposes.

We may also use cookies to assign your device a user ID. Cookies contain information that allows us to identify your device. You can configure your browser so that it does not accept cookies, however this may minimise our ability to provide you with customised information. Further information can be found at www.frankhealthinsurance.com.au 'Website Terms of Use' within the 'Legals' section.

When you use our website or ask for general information, we may deal with you without requiring you to provide personal information.

However, if you choose not to provide us with personal information, we may not be able to provide you with the services you require.
